U. S. MARINE BAND TO PLAY AT SOUTH BOSTON

South Boston, Va.- The world famous United States Marine Band —the President's own—will appear here Saturday, September 24 for afternoon and evening concerts, under the auspices of the South Boston Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The colorful bandsmen will be heard at the county's new consolidated high school, Halifax County High School, midway between South Boston and Halifax on U. S. Route 501.

Afternoon concert will begin at 2 P. M. Adult tickets are being sold for $1.00 and student tickets for 50 cents. Evening performance will start at 8 P. M. Special reserved seats will sell for $1.75 and general admission tickets for $1.25.

Out of town persons may secure advance tickets by writing to Tom Greer, Chairman, Ticket Sales, the South Boston Junior Chamber of Commerce, P. O. Box 635, South Boston. They are cautioned that the evening concert tickets will likely be sold out well in advance of the date.

As the U. S. Marine music-makers swing through the Southeastern states on this tour, they are celebrating their 157th anniversary. The oldest active musical organization in the nation, the Marine Band was established in 1798 by President John Adams as the official White House Band and it has been styled "The President's Own" ever since.

Bureaucratic methods and peasant stubbornness have brought Soviet agriculture to a crisis, a survey indicated.

Senator Walter George, 77, of Georgia, rejects the suggestion that he retire.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Joseph Ray Lane, who passed away two years ago, September 14, 1953.

You bade no one a last farewell.
You said goodbye to none.
Your dear heart just ceased to beat,
and you were suddenly gone;
Your memory to us is a keepsake,
With which we shall never part.
Though God has you in his keeping,
We still have you in our hearts.
—Sadly missed by
Wife and Children.

IN MEMORY

PAGE: In sad but loving memory of our dear son and brother, Matthew W. Page, who departed this life one year ago, Sept. 13, 1954.

A silent thought, a secret tear,
Keeps your memory ever dear.
Time takes away the edge of grief,
But memory turns every leaf.

A face that is ever before us,
A voice that we cannot forget;
A smile that will linger forever,
In our memory we see it yet.

Keep him Jesus, in Thy keeping,
Until we reach that golden shore;
Then dear Master, let us have him,
And love him as we did before.

Dear son, you are gone but not forgotten,
Never will your memory fade.
The loving thoughts of you will be
With us to the end of our days.

—Sadly missed by Father, Mother, Sisters, Brothers and Grandfather.

IN MEMORY

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear wife and mother, Mrs. C. D. Drinkard, who pased away one year ago today, Sept. 17, 1954.

Little we knew when dawned that morn,
The sorrow that day would bring;
The end was sudden, the shock severe,
To part with one we loved so dear.

We could not understand just why,
You had to go away;
Why you left us so suddenly,
On that dark lonely day.

God knows how much we miss you,
He knows our thoughts each day;
And when he calls us home to you,
Your smile will lead the way.

Just like a flower nipped by frost,
A rose bud picked too soon;
But though on earth they have faded,
In heaven bloom again.

God gave us a wonderful mother and wife,
One of the world's very best,
Beautiful memories are all we have left,
Of the one whom we loved and will never forget.

The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never,
The memory of the happy days,
When we were all together.

Friends may think we have forgotten
When at times they see us smile,
But they little know the heartaches
Our smiles hide all the while.

Her thoughts were all so full of us,
She never could forget;
And so we think that where she is,
She must be watching yet.
—Sadly missed by
Husband and Children.

IN MEMORY

In sad remembrance of my dear wife, Mrs. C. D. Drinkard, who died one year ago today, Sept. 17, 1954.

Oh, Susie dear, with heart of gold,
With hair of silver hue;
It is best you do not know,
How much I'm missing you.

The beautiful things you did for me,
Live within my heart each day,
And keep you near and dear to me,
Though you have passed away.

I've lost my soul companion,
A life linked with my own,
And as time slowly passes,
I'll walk through life alone.
—Sadly missed by Husband.

A LUCKY FIND

Detroit.- Little Linda Patterson, only 9 days old, may be responsible for saving the life of her brother Gary, 4. Mrs. Thomas Patterson, hearing the baby's cries while searchers looked for Gary, who had been missing for two hours, went to the refrigerator to get milk for the baby. Gary was found jammed between two narrow shelves in the refrigerator, more dead than alive. Taken to a nearby hospital, Gary was warmed, examined and sent home. He couldn't explain how he wedged himself into the narrow shelf space, but he insisted: "Somebody shut the door on me."

HURRICANES HARMED QUAIL

C. F. Phelps, chief of the Game Division of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries, says that from reports received at the Commission office in Richmond during the past two weeks, it is indicated that in some localities the recent hurricanes Connie and Diane wreaked considerable damage on the prospective quail crop.

These reports for the Piedmont and Southside Virginia are of any, where from normal to 90 per cent losses. Phelps said, of course, it is hoped that the reports of losses will prove to be over-pessimistic and that in the uplands we will enter the season with a normal crop of birds. Surveys will continue to be made and later reports given on the situation.
